Deposed Minister Says Turkey Does Not Disapprove His Own Deeds.

That Mehmed Ali Bey, deposed Turk-ish minister, who has left Washington stewardship has been such that he might safely return to Constantinople were it not for his father, Inzet Pasha, is the statement of a close friend who talked with the minister just before his Mehmed All was asked why he hesi tated to return to his own country, and if any act of his had displeased the Sultan or the younger Turks.

"I date not return, as much as I would like to, because I am the son of Izzet Pasha," he said, "I do not know what reception the son of a man who is new charged with all manner of things, would receive. Therefore, I must re-main samewhere else for a time, although I myself have done nothing that should anger my countrymen."

Mehmed Ali Bey qualified this by saying that even his father was not guilty many of the things laid at his door ne charges of graft and of the illusrious Izzet Pasha's alleged connection with the Macedonion massacres were ecifically denied by Mehmed Ali on mehalf of his father,

It has been announced at the Venezue lan legation that Senor N. Velos-Goiti coa, first secretary and charge d'affairs of Venezuela, has been sent to Berlin as charge d'affairs at that place, where he will be joined shortly by his wife, who has been in Washington all summer, occupying the house of Lloyd Smoot at 3235 R street northwest.
His daughter, Miss Julia Velos, will remain in Washington with her brother, Nicholas Velos, and the latter's wife, who was formerly Miss Shultz.
Nicholas Velos has given up his career in the diplomatic service of his country to remain here.

Those indicted yesterday were Ernest Humphrey, huckster; Rudolph Bredmeyer, mechanic; John Schienle, grocery clerk; William Sutton, cabman; Herbert Carey, blacksmith, and one other man whose identity was kept secret at the order of Judge Creighton ecause he is understood to have fied rom Springfield.

from Springfield.

It is rumored that an indictment, charging murder also, is to be returned against Humphrey and more indictments are anticipated against Kate Howard and Abraham Raymer, who is already under serious indictments. Among others who may be indicted are many living in nearby towns. Among others who may be indicted are many living in nearby towns.

That the grand jury has not half finished the task is shown by the states and the town of Assistant States Attorney Wines last night. He said the prosecutors were confident that half a hundred or more indictments would be returned within the next ten days.

It was decided by the authorities yesterday that conditions still are so unsettled that it would be unwise to withdraw the Seventh Illinos infantry, of Chicago, the only soldiers left to guard the town, for at least three or four days.
